“Messages of Divine Mercy”
Saturday, October 5th at 10:00 a.m. (in the Church)
A Program with Relics of St. Faustina Kowalska

Messages of Divine Mercy: A Program with Relics of St. Faustyna Kowalska is a one-hour presentation provided by the Apostolate for Holy Relics (AHR).

The program allows the faithful to engage in meditative review of messages provided to St. Faustyna Kowalska as noted in her Diary. The program features the following major elements:

- Christ’s Passion
- The Holy Eucharist
- Recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet
- Special music that allows for a meditative atmosphere and engages the faithful
- Veneration for each of the relics (relics of St. Faustyna, the Relic of the True Cross and a 1st Class Relic of Blessed Seelos)
- Exposition of the holy Eucharist as part of the meditative portion of our presentation. Its purpose is to highlight that time-transcending gift that connects us from his Passion to his Presence with us today.
- The delivery format is narrative given by a female voice, representing St. Faustyna integrated with a male voice representing Jesus in their conversations.

A collection of holy relics such as this can rarely be seen together with a full supporting program. When the relics and program are brought together in a singular capacity highlighting St. Faustyna’s interactions with Jesus, the faithful engages in a memorable experience that provides for a new or renewed perspective on the Divine Mercy of Jesus. All are welcome to attend.

LIFE TEEN

Sunday, September 22, 2024

Metadata

Every discerning person questions the existence of God. This thought-provoking Life Night equips our teens to answer (or begin to answer) this question for themselves by encouraging their faith and gently nudging them toward the truth. Teens are shown how belief can be supported by evidence and reason, and that a personal relationship with God can be deepened through prayer and scripture.

Revelation, Scripture, and Tradition

“God is love” (1 John 4:8), and love is meant to be revealed. God chooses to reveal His very life, love and plan for humanity to us. We call God’s sharing Divine Revelation. God has chosen to communicate his Revelation through Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition. These together make up the single sacred Deposit of the Word of God, preserved, protected, and passed down through the Church for the sake of the world.

Children will be invited to gather up by the Altar just before the readings begin. They will be taken to the Atrium (classroom near the church restrooms) to read and talk about the day’s readings. Children will be returned to the church to rejoin their parents after the readings at the Collection. We hope to have your children join us, allowing them to fully understand the Word of God on their level.

Observances for the week

Monday: St. Pius of Pietrelcina, Priest; National Migration Week

Thursday: Sts. Cosmas and Damian, Martyrs

Friday: St. Vincent de Paul, Priest

Saturday: St. Wenceslaus, Martyr; St. Lawrence Ruiz and Companions, Martyrs

St. Wenceslaus, Martyr September 28 Patron of Bohemia

The father of St. Wenceslaus, Vratistlas, Duke of Bohemia, was a Christian; but his mother Drahomira, a pagan, was a wicked and cruel woman. Fortunately for St. Wenceslaus, he was educated under the care of his saintly grandmother, St. Ludmilla, with whose efforts he fully corresponded. At Budweis, about sixty miles from Prague, he went to a college where he made great progress in learning. His father died while he was still young, and Drahomira, assuming the title of Regent, gave vent to her hatred of Christianity by a cruel persecution.

At the advice of his grandmother, St. Wenceslaus finally took the government into his own hands; but to prevent disputes between him and his brother, Boleslaus, the people divided the territory between them, giving to Boleslaus a considerable share. The latter, who had been under the influence of his mother, had acquired her hatred of the Christian religion. The pious St. Wenceslaus led the life of a Saint in the midst of his court, distinguishing himself by his devotion to the Blessed Sacrament.

His piety and his severity against the oppressions of the nobility caused some to join the faction of his mother. Being treacherously invited to the court of Boleslaus after the festivities, he went at midnight to pray in the church. The assassins found him there and the mortal blow was given him by his own brother, Boleslaus. His last words were "Brother, may God forgive you." His death occurred in 929.

Our Lady of the Desert GIFT SHOP

The gift shop will open on Sunday, September 22nd. The hours will be 7:30 to 11:15 a.m. on Sundays only. In celebration, we are offering 10% off all garden plaques and statues for the month of September. Don't forget to check for bargains of the fully replenished clearance cart!

FORGIVENESS!!!!

Even as Wenceslas was dying at the hand of his own brother, he was able to forgive him. Jesus teaches that we should not only forgive our enemies but we should also love and pray for them.

Is there someone that you need to forgive?

Does it bother you that you haven't forgiven someone?

Below are some bible quotes about forgiving.

Ephesians 4-31-32:

*All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ.

Colossians 3:12-13:

*Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do.
