Priesthood Sunday

Priesthood Sunday is celebrated this Sunday, September 28th. The day is a national event to honor and express gratitude for priests in the Catholic Church, with activities like writing thank you cards, creating spiritual bouquets, or offering prayers and sacrifices to show appreciation for their service.

Gracious & loving God,
we thank you for the gift of our priests.
Through them, we experience
your presence in the sacraments.
Help our priests to be strong in their vocation.
Set their souls on fire
with love for your people.
Grant them the wisdom, understanding,
and strength they need
to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.
Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.
Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.
Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.
Help them to become instruments
of your divine grace.
We ask this through Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.
Amen
(from the USCCB)

St. Thérèse of Lisieux (St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus) Patroness of Missionaries, France & Others Feast Day—October 1

The much-loved youngest daughter of a religious French family, Marie Françoise Thérèse Martin was born in 1873. Even as a youngster, precocious Thérèse was aware of her spiritual vocation. At age 14, she asked her widowed father to let her enter the cloistered order of Carmelites. Although her father agreed, the Carmelite superiors and the Bishop insisted she wait.

So, on a pilgrimage to the Vatican in 1887, Thérèse pleaded directly to Pope Leo XIII, begging him to allow her to enter the convent at 15. Although impressed by her fervor, the Pope advised patience, saying "You shall enter if it be God's will." Nearly a year and many prayers later, she joined the order. She was named Sister Thérèse of the Infant Jesus; later "and of the Holy Face" was added.

Sister Thérèse spent her days in penitence, meditation and work. In her autobiography, The Story of a Soul, she described herself as "the little flower of Jesus" in God's garden of souls. As she reached her twenties, Thérèse desperately wanted to join the Carmelites in French Indochina. Tragically, incurable tuberculosis dashed any chance for her to serve as a missionary. Instead, she counseled two missionaries, writing them often to offer spiritual encouragement.

As she lay dying in great, constant pain at age of 24, Thérèse could see the roses she loved blooming outside. Confident of God's love, she promised, "After my death, I will let fall a shower of roses. I will spend my Heaven in doing good upon earth." Through the years, some of Thérèse's petitioners have said that they smell or see roses when their petitions are answered.

If you would like to learn more about St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus, There is a DVD being shown on Tuesday, September 30th at 1:00 p.m. Room 2.

Four-Week Study of Marian Shrines
Thursdays: October 16th, 23rd, 30th and November 6th)
Social Hall from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m.

Join us for an inspiring four-week study led by Deacon Paul as we explore the spiritual significance and history of four major Marian shrines: Our Lady of Lourdes, Our Lady of Fatima, Our Lady of Guadalupe, and Our Lady of Częstochowa. Each week, we will dive into the history, miracles, and spiritual messages of these sacred sites, deepening our understanding of and devotion to Our Lady. Discover messages of hope, faith, and devotion that continue to inspire millions worldwide.

Here's a brief overview of each shrine:

- Our Lady of Lourdes (France): Known for the 1858 apparitions of the Virgin Mary to St. Bernadette Soubirous, this shrine is a global destination for healing, with millions visiting its spring waters for spiritual and physical renewal.
- Our Lady of Fatima (Portugal): The 1917 apparitions to three shepherd children delivered messages of prayer, repentance, and peace. This shrine remains a vibrant center for devotion and pilgrimage.
- Our Lady of Guadalupe (Mexico): In 1531, Mary's apparition to St. Juan Diego left an enduring image on his tilma, symbolizing unity and faith, especially in the Americas.

Our Lady of Częstochowa (Poland): The Black Madonna, housed in Jasna Góra Monastery, is a powerful symbol of resilience and faith, with a rich history of miracles and national significance.

All are welcome to join this spiritual journey. Attendees must register for this free course by calling the parish office. Each participant will receive a complimentary copy of Christ, Science, and Reason by Fr. Robert J. Spitzer, S.J., Ph.D. which includes chapters five and six with an in-depth analysis of the apparition events at Lourdes, Fatima, and Guadalupe.
