SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading:

Naaman went down and plunged into the Jordan seven times at the word of Elisha, the man of God. His flesh became again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean of his leprosy.
(2 Kgs 5:14)

Psalm:

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.
(Ps 98)

Second Reading:

If we have died with him we shall also live with him; if we persevere we shall also reign with him.
(2 Tim 2:11-12)

Gospel:

Then he said to him, "Stand up and go; your faith has saved you."
(Lk 17:19)

A Prayer for Life

O Jesus, you came that we might have life
—and have it in abundance.
Together with the Father and the Holy Spirit,
you form us in our mothers' wombs
and call us to love you for all eternity.

As your most precious gift of human life is attacked, draw us ever closer to your Real Presence in the Eucharist.
Dispel the darkness of the culture of death,
for you are the light that shines in the darkness,
and the darkness cannot overcome it.

By the power of your Eucharistic Presence,
help us to defend the life of every human person
at every stage.
Transform our hearts
to protect and cherish
all whose lives are most vulnerable.

For you are God, forever and ever.
Amen

A Life Night on the Story of Scripture

The Bible can seem like a vague collection of unrelated texts from different time periods written with different intentions and styles. What unified message can we garner from this collection of books? This Life Night will dive into the overarching story of Scripture as God's redemptive plan to save human beings from sin and bring them to eternal life with him.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

*St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host,
by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan
and the other evil spirits
who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls.
AMEN*

Eucharistic Ministers

There will be a mandatory meeting for all EMs on Monday, November 3, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. in the church to review guidelines for distribution of the Eucharist. Anyone who is interested in joining this ministry should stop by the Sacristy and get an application. A separate training session will be immediately after the general meeting for new EMs.

There will be a second mandatory meeting on January 12, 2026 for winter visitors arriving after the holidays and those who are unable to attend the November 3rd meeting.

Thank you and God Bless you all.

Four-Week Study of Marian Shrines

Thursdays: October 16th, 23rd & 30th

And November 6th

Social Hall from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m.

Join us for an inspiring four-week study led by Deacon Paul Rokosz as we explore the spiritual significance and history of four major Marian shrines: Our Lady of Lourdes, Our Lady of Fatima, Our Lady of Guadalupe and Our Lady of Czestochowa.

All are welcome to join this spiritual journey. Attendees must pre-register for this free course by calling the parish office. Each participant will receive a complimentary copy of Christ, Science, and Reason by Fr. Robert J. Spitzer, S.J., Ph.D. Which includes chapters 5 & 6 with an in-depth analysis of the apparition events.

Grief Support Has Resumed....

Our Grief Support has returned on the 1st & 3rd Thursdays of each month. They meet at 9:30 a.m. in room 3. If you are struggling with grief or a devastating loss and need a support group, come and share, socialize and be comforted with others.

"Blessed are those that mourn, for they will be comforted" Matthew 5:4

Hours for September & October
Saturdays: 1:30—4:00 p.m.
Sundays: 6:30—11:30 a.m.

All of October will have Rosaries for 10% off. Come see the many new items we have. We also have many Our Lady of Guadalupe items to coincide with Deacon Paul's program "Study of Marian Shrines".

The Roses of Peace Prayer

The term ROSARY initially referred to a circular enclosed garden, and later to a garland of roses. Since Mary is invoked as Mystical Rose in traditional litanies, Catholics find it easy to associate this beautiful, sweet-smelling and wonderfully enfolded flower with the woman we call Mother. When Mary appeared as Our Lady of Guadalupe to Juan Diego, she filled his tilma with roses in December. So the association seems to be as appealing to Mary as it is to those who honor her.

As we hold in our hands the strung roses of wood, glass, marble or plastic, the scent of peace arises. Like children caressing a smooth shell or a brilliant marble, we feel the quiet stirring on contentment. John Paul II reminds us, "The rosary is by its nature a prayer for peace, since it consists in the contemplation of Christ, the Prince of Peace, the one who is 'our peace' (Ephesians 2:4; RVM, #40)

The pope corrects those who would label the rosary an escape from the world's harsh realities. Instead, by focusing our awareness on Christ, the rosary opens our eyes to the necessity of being peacemakers and justice-doers according to his example.

Saturday:	St. Luke, Evangelist

St. Callistus I Feast Day: October 14 Pope &

Patron Saint of Cemetery Workers

According to Hippolytus, Callistus was a slave in Rome, whose Christian master had placed him in charge of a bank that served other Christians. But when the bank failed, Callistus feared he would be blamed, so he fled to Portus, where he was later apprehended, tried and sentenced to hard labor. Callistus convinced his master to release him so that he could recover the lost money, but he was unsuccessful. Instead, Callistus was arrested for pestering some Jewish moneylenders, and he was sent to Sardinia.

Some time later, Callistus was given his freedom when he was accidentally released with a group of Christians. Callistus moved to Rome, and in 199, Pope Zephyrinus appointed him caretaker of a Christian burial ground on the Via Appia.

In later years, Callistus was ordained a deacon and eventually became the Pope's close friend and advisor. Then in 217, Callistus was elected Pope.

Callistus was compassionate toward slaves and other people who were ignored. Despite opposition from Hippolytus, who rigidly adhere to early Church rules, Callistus absolved sinners who repented and offered communion to those who did public penance for serious sins. He also recognized marriages of free people to slaves, hoping to reduce the number of illicit relationships with Christian slaves.

It is believed that Callistus was martyred during an uprising in 222. Although he served as Pope for only a few years, Callistus's faith and forgiving nature opened the Church to everyone.
